The Student Senate was headed by Gary Stansell, Student Body President. He and the other seven officers were elected in the Spring of 1962 and took office at the beginning of the fall term in Sept. 1962. The Senate controls many of the student activities such as Student Publications, Intramural Athletics, Social-Cultural Life, and Religious Life. The dorm proctors underwent a complete first aid training program during the year.

RELIGIOUS LIFE COMMITTEE

The Religious Life Committee made it possible for students to serve the Lord in many ways. Under their direction, students conducted chapel services, and through the individual dorm chairman, evening devotions were conducted. The service committee sponsored groups who proclaimed the Gospel at Westfield Mission, Irene Byron Home, Allen County Home, and State School.

Social and Cultural activities were made an actuality by the Social-Cultural Committee headed by Don Affeldt. Banquets were held each month featuring many interesting speakers and enjoyable entertainment. The dorm chairmen planned parties for many occasions. These parties were usually for one or two dorms and were held on special occasions like Halloween, Christmas, and the first day of Spring.

CHURCH VOCATIONS COUNCIL

The Church Vocations Council, consisting of six members, accomplished a variety of things this year as it worked in its four areas: Spring Recruitment tours, Walther League programs, Congregational programs, and Lutheran High School presentations. In carrying out their purpose of acquainting the youth of the church with the five church vocations (Deaconess work, the ministry, social work, teaching, and youth work) they made spring tours to Tennessee, North Carolina, Ohio, Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois, and Wisconsin. They found their presentations to be very well received by the young people and aroused much enthusiasm among the ranks of all Synodical schools. One of the highlights of the year was the production of a film strip depicting campus life in all of Synod's schools.

H. Schuetz: Magnificat
J. S. Bach: Ye Are Not of the Flesh

The Cantata Choir, made up of 35 selected male voices and some 25 female voices from the Ft. Wayne area, took part in the four Choral Vespers. The women were also members of their own respective church choirs. Six faculty wives were members of the organization this year. Many of the selections sung by this organization were accompanied by an orchestra. The highlight of the year was the performance of The Passion of Our Lord According to St. John by J. S. Bach. The guest soloist was Kenneth Gorgensen of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Other soloists were students and professors. The Cantata Choir, along with the college choir, presented "Begotten to a Lively Hope" at the Valparaiso Church Music Seminar on March 20.

 H. Schuetz: Sing Praise to Our Glorious Lord
 J. S. Bach: Jesu, Joyance of My Heart
 H. Spitta: From Heaven Above, Ye Angels All

The Concordia Senior College Choir, composed of sixty-five selected voices, made regular concert appearances in the four choral vespers and sang in several daily chapel services. A fifty-voice tour choir selected from the sixty-five embarked on a ten day tour on March 1. On their 2,500 mile trip they sang in Michigan, Eastern Canada, Western New York, and Ohio. Their program included music from the rich musical heritage of Lutheranism, ranging from the sixteenth century to the twentieth century. Two short cantatas for choir and brasses were featured in the program: one by the seventeenth century German composer, Vincent Luebeck; the other, "Warfare and Victory," by the contemporary American composer, Rene Frank. The choir brought the year to a fitting end by participating in the final communion service on Ascension Day and by singing for the Baccalaureate service.

BRASS CHOIR

1st ROW: J. Miner; J. Hoelter; H. Bittner. 2nd ROW: R. Kringel; K. Licht. 3rd ROW: B. Meyers; D. Hirsch.

The Brass Choir, directed by John Hoelter, added much to the beauty of chapel services and chorus presentations. They accompanied the College Choir on several numbers while on tour and presented two selections of their own: "O Sacred Head Now Wounded" by Hans Leo Hassler and "Canzona per Sonare No. 1" by Giovanni Gabrieli.

The organists served our Lord well assisting the student body in worship each day. They spent many hours practicing to make our chapel services more beautiful and a greater expression of our love to God. Two men from the group, Kirby Koriath and Allen Bruck, presented a recital on graduation day.

Those of us who worked at Westfield know that God was truly with us in this mission endeavor. We were able to see the mission stabilize and grow, and could feel His influence working through us in the area even more than we could see it. The uplifting devotions with the old and the sick; the Saturday afternoon calling sessions, sometimes discouraging yet sometimes truly thrilling; the challenging Sunday School classes; and the simple worship services, geared to relate to a people we strove constantly to understand; these are memories and experiences not soon to be forgotten.

STATE SCHOOL

The students of C.S.C. did much to help our less fortunate brothers at the State School. Over thirty students did just as the fellow pictured here is doing. They taught the story of Jesus our Savior to the children. One group spent several Saturdays helping paint the playground equipment.

Delta Phi Alpha is an EHRENVERBINDUNG in which scholarship, particularly the study of the German language, is honored. The meetings are conducted in German, but the dues are collected in American currency. Throughout the year guest speakers give reports or show slides about things German. This year the society sponsored a convocation in which the German Council of the Federal Republic of Germany discussed the European Common Market.

During the year the deaf workers were kept busy by holding devotions for the deaf at the Allen County Home. In addition, these men took part in a deaf service once every other week at the Holy Cross Chapel. Their main emphasis, however, was a class period every two weeks conducted by Rev. Pokorny to improve their technique.

DEAF WORK

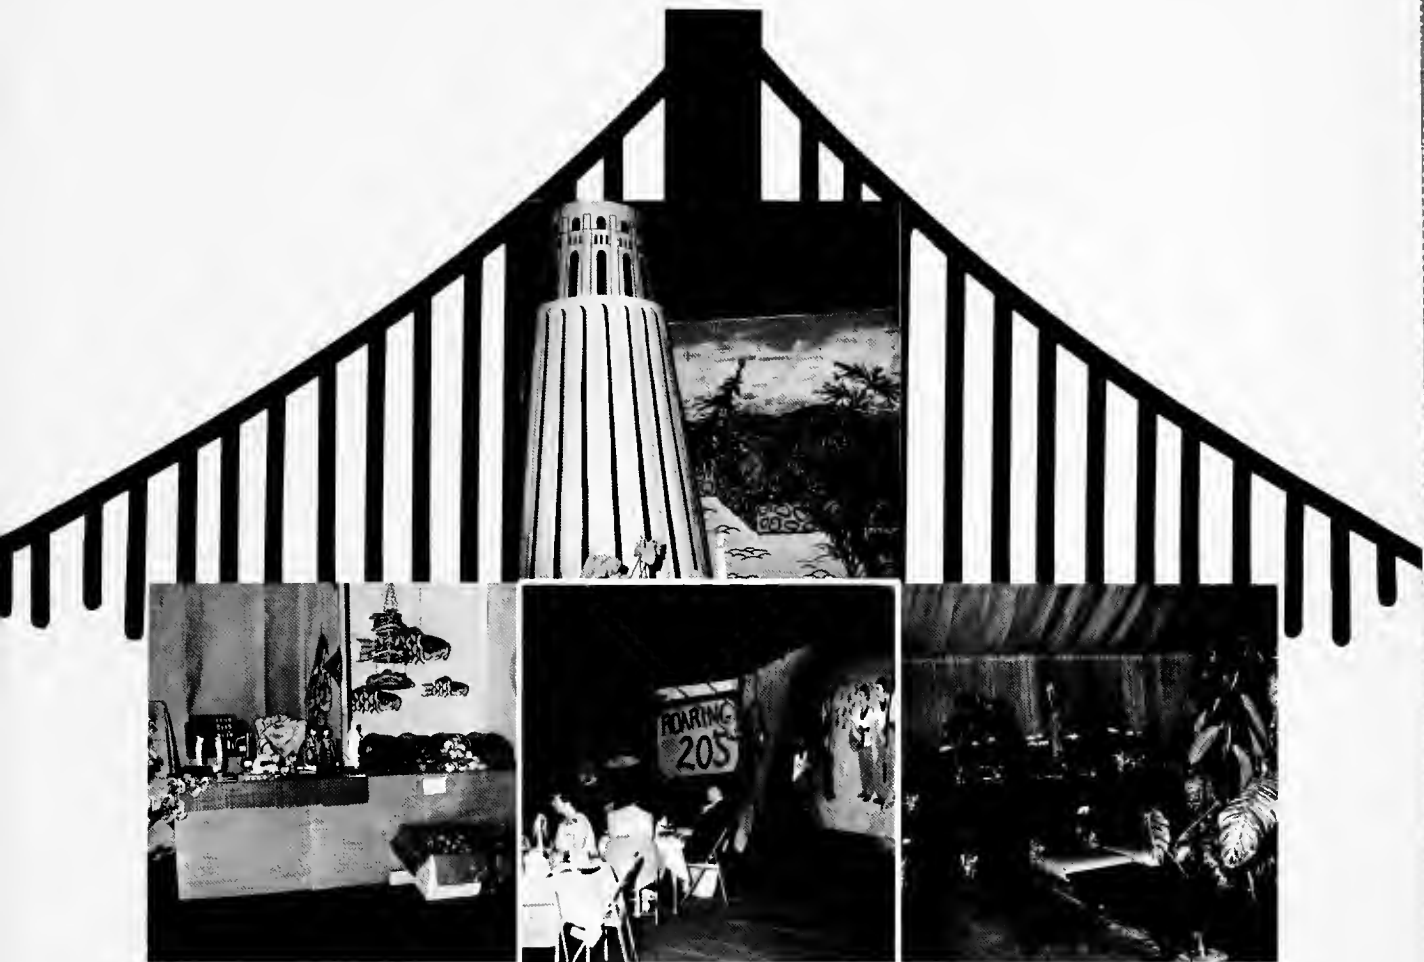

AN EVENING IN

After a pleasant reception at the big ship in the dining hall the crowds moved away to the San Francisco setting and passed through China Town. The street was bordered by a fruit and vegetable store, curio shops and a flower shop. Descending the staircase, they entered the dining room and found a panorama of San Francisco circling the candle-lit tables.

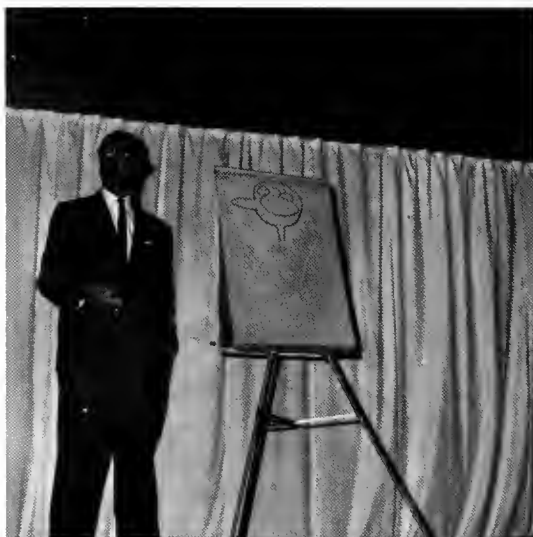

SAN FRANCISCO

They saw Knob Hill with its hotels and viewed a freshly painted cable car waiting at its stop for passengers. Fisherman's wharf and the twinkling Golden Gate bridge in relief brought the people right down to the blue waters of beautiful San Francisco Bay. Coit Tower and various night life spots rounded out the breathtaking scene.

SPEAKER: Prof. George W. Hoyer

SPRING BANQUET

One of the highlights of the entire school year was the night of the Spring Banquet, AN EVENING IN SAN FRANCISCO. The toastmaster, Prof. Haas, presented the program with his cartoons and witty jokes. Alden Beversdorf drew laughs and applause with his "punctuation" reading. The Can't Singers took us to a San Francisco stage to hear variations on folk songs.

The speaker, Prof. George W. Hoyer, from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, presented thoughts which drew respectful silence and thought.

Alden Beversdorf speaks with audible punctuation.

Achievement earns a pride that is justifiable, particularly when such achievement helps and pleases others. The 675,000 members of Aid Association for Lutherans wish to acknowledge your accomplishments on this memorable occasion. They send their best wishes for your continued success. • These AAL members know about achievement, too, and they enjoy a pride that is equally justifiable. Their society, which has served Lutheran families for 60 years by providing them with financial peace-of-mind, is America's largest fraternal life insurance society and ranks among the top three percent of all life insurance organizations. • You will find AAL members most anxious to share this success with you . . . by modestly boasting of the Special Difference—LOWER NET COST—which they enjoy with AAL.

Remember

CONCORDIA stands ready to assist you with your specialized religious book and church supply needs.

If our stock of over 8,000 books cannot supply you, we can secure your title from one of the many U. S. or foreign publishers with whom we are in constant contact.

Remember also that CONCORDIA houses one of the largest collections of religious music in the country (over 5,000 select compositions) as well as over 900 quality religious films and filmstrips. Also church furnishings of the highest quality.

We shall look forward to helping you with your book, music, audio-visual, and ecclesiastical arts needs — now and in the years ahead.

YOUR CHURCH'S PENSION PLAN FOR PASTORS AND TEACHERS OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH--MISSOURI SYNOD

To you the students of Concordia Senior College we extend our most cordial congratulations upon your graduation.

Under Synod's direction and by the grace of God your training will continue until you are prepared to give your full time to the direct labors in His kingdom work.

Your Church will continue to work with you and help you also for the later days of your retirement. The Pension Program of Synod will be at your service.
